For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN
KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

Price 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

THE EASIEST THING.

Why John Randolph, the Dwarf, Dropped the Gum Drop Industry.

That John Randolph, late of Chicago, should forsake that wicked city for the more effete environment of Greater New York is not surprising when his really pathetic story is known. I met Mr.
Randolph recently, after a lapse of years, wearing an air of settled melancholy, a wide brimmed hat and hair that hung to the middle of his back. At first I hardly knew John, he had changed so much.

He is less than 2 feet high, broad of beam and is blessed with a pair of legs that resemble a horse collar. It was these legs that supplied the missing link in the chain of recognition. For years Mr. Randolph flourished in the gum drop industry in the Chicago Ten-derloin. With a candy tray strapped to his stomach, John stood in front of theaters and other places of amusement and infested saloons, doing a thriving gum drop trade at all hours until the footpads finally drove the little man from his native heath.

"I couldn't stand it any longer," said John, with a half sob. "Not only did the footpads break me up in business, but they hurt my feelings so that I had to leave town. How would you like to be carried into an alley, held up by the heels and shaken like a meal sack until everything in your pockets fell out?
Well, that's what those Chicago thieves did to me, a respectable business man.
I was too little to sandbag, and the footpads used to jolly me and say I was the easiest thing in town. Then the papers got to printing pieces about John Randolph being shaken down again, with pictures supposed to be funny, but I couldn't see the joke.

"This winter was the worst of all. I could stand being robbed two or three times a week, but when they got to shaking the coin out of my clothes every night, and sometimes twice of an evening, I left town. I intended to go into business here, but they won't let me wear a tray, and if I carried a basket the people would be stepping in it. But I've got a new scheme. See my hair and hat? Well, I've got some buckskin breeches with fringe on them and a revolver, and I'm going to strike the dime museum circuit as the Lilliputian Buffalo Bill."—New York Journal.

A VOICE FROM THE BLEACHERS.

Local interest in the cricket games as reflected from the "bleachers" is increasing. During Saturday's games the "bleachers" were particularly vociferous and kept the players under a running fire of good natured banter.
One small boy brought down the crowd by advising the batsman to "go buy a case of Rainier Beer and get some life in you." The crowd applauded the remark, knowing that Rainier Beer is celebrated for its invigorating and strength-giving propensities.
